

Call For Papers

Annual 'Equity in Education & Society' conference

Institute for Educational & Social Equity (formerly 'Educational Equity Services') is pleased to issue this Call for Papers for contributions to its annual 'Equity in Education & Society' conference being held in association with London South Bank University.

Details of the conference are as follows:

- Event: Annual 'Equity in Education & Society' conference
- Theme: No specific theme but speakers/ contributors are asked to frame their input around the title of the conference
- Date: Friday 15th July: 09:20 - 18:00, including refreshment reception from 16:30
- Audience: Anyone interested in 'equity' issues in educational, social and/or work contexts
- Modality: Face-to-face
- Venue: London South Bank University, Elephant & Castle
- Cost: £89 + VAT per person

For those persons wishing to present a paper at this conference, the final date to submit an abstract will be Tuesday 31st May. Abstracts should be emailed as attachments to: conference@instituteforequity.ac.uk

Conference timelines:

- 19th April: Call announced
- 31st May: Final date to submit abstracts
- 10th June: Registration open via Eventbrite
- 10th July: Registration ends via Eventbrite

Notes:

- (1) Presenters attending will have their names entered into the conference programme.
- (2) Presenters attending will have the opportunity to submit a version of their conference paper to <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/equityedsoc> for consideration for publication no later than 31st December 2022.

Professor Paul Miller
Director, Institute for Educational & Social Equity
V2: 16/06/2022